CLASS INFORMATION:
Central operates on an eight-period block schedule, meeting four periods each day for 90 minutes. Also incorporated into the school day is a 25 minute "FLEX period" (Future Learning Experience) which helps prepare students for the future beyond their high school years. Central's school year is divided into two semesters that allow for a total of 168 instructional days. Credits are assigned on a semester basis – ½ unit of credit per class.

RANK IN CLASS
Rank in class is determined by the weighted class rank calculation. Freshmen and sophomores receive weighted credit in a maximum of four (4) classes per semester. Juniors and seniors receive weighted credit in a maximum of five (5) classes per semester. The honors classes are denoted on the student’s transcript with an * or an “H”. (Students may enroll in more than the maximum number of honors courses, but weighted credit will only be assigned to the four (4) or five (5) in which they receive the highest grade.)
